STORY

The human race was about to achieve the evolution from an ancient civilization to a state of millenium with the help of "DARK", a super powerful computer left by spacemen long ago. "DARK" suddenly began to malfunction.
The world was in a panic. The human race was on the brink of extinction.
"ARES", God of war, gave two young men Wings of Love and Courage and entrusted them with the survival and future of the human race.
Time is of the essence. Destroy "DARK". Take wings, legendary soldiers.
